- 6. In January 1952 the airfield was operated by the navy and all personnel wore naval uniforms. No officers, only enlisted men, were seen at the barracks.
- 7. Many kinds of trucks were observed on the other side of the road east of the airfield in January 1952. There were rake-like objects turning horizontally six to ten meters above the closed trucks. Other trucks had masts approximately six to seven meters above the ground.
- 8. There was no railroad line to Palanga, the nearest being at Sventoji, approximately five kilometers from the airfield at Palanga.
- 9. There were no other airfields at Palanga.
